CONSTITUTION
OF
THE ASSOCIATION OF STATE WETLAND MANAGERS

PREAMBLE

The Association of State Wetland Managers is hereby formed on the 12 day of December 1983, for education and research purposes to help protect, restore and manage the Nation's wetland resources. There is a need for enhanced state, local, tribal, federal, international and private roles in protection and management of wetlands. Active stewardship is needed to reduce draining, dredging, filling, excess flooding, destruction of vegetation, excavating, building and discharge of pollution. These activities have already destroyed over half of the Nation's fragile and important wetlands, which, in their natural state, serve as:

--habitat for birds, fish, amphibians, reptiles, and other wildlife,
--habitat for rare and endangered species,
--wave and erosion buffers,
--flood storage and conveyance areas,
--sources of nutrients and spawning grounds for fish and shellfish,
--sediment and pollution traps,
--aquifer recharge areas (in some instances),
--educational and research areas.

ARTICLE I

Name
The official name of this organization shall be: the "Association of State Wetland Managers, Inc." hereinafter referred to as the Association.

ARTICLE II

Purpose
The purpose of the Association is to provide the forum and means to promote protection, restoration and management of the Nation's wetlands. More specific goals include:

• To help build state, tribal, local government, federal, international, nonprofit, and private capability to protect and manage wetlands and waters;
• To promote the exchange and dissemination of information between Association members and between Association members and other interested parties through an annual meeting, workshops, seminars, newsletters, reports, books, webinars, training, the Internet and other approaches; To educate the public concerning wetland values and protection, restoration, and management techniques through workshops, seminars, lectures, reports, books, webinars, the Internet and the like;
• To designate wetlands of special value through surveys, workshops, etc.;
• To conduct research concerning wetland protection and restoration needs and techniques.

The Association is one that does not contemplate pecuniary gain or profit to the members thereof, and is organized solely for non-profit purposes. No part of the earnings of the Association shall personally benefit or be distributable to its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except to recompense for authorized services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes of the Association.

ARTICLE III

Membership
